

Becky is an idea person that loves to create whether it is a mosaic, a construction project, or a new program. She sees a possibility, potential, vision of what could be and proceeds to create, develop, arrange, and recruit individuals to make it happen. She is a team player who leads with encouragement, helping people discover who they are, identifying and using their strengths to get involved, thus developing teams.

Added to her professional life is being a pastor's wife of 37 years, and in her personal life, is the mother of four grown children and grandmother of 13. She loves art and music.
