

Jenn is a native Coloradoan who moved to Minnesota for college. She met her future husband, Mark, in 2005 as they were both in a traveling worship team for their college. In 2008 they got married and now have two small children Adoniram {Ado for short- like 'play-doh'} (5) and Annabelle (2). In 2021 the family moved to Bagley as Mark accepted the call to be the Pastor at Calvary Evangelical Free Church in Bagley.

The family loves exploring and adventuring in any weather, with camping and snowshoeing at the top. Currently, Jenn stays at home with her daughter Annabelle and works marketing part time at CWLC. On the weekends, Jenn and her husband can often be found outside or at their church. Jenn's passion is to help our communities come to know and experience Jesus.
