

Mistie grew up in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado in the small town of Gypsum. She was raised by her Dad & step-mom with an older brother & younger half-sister. She moved to Minnesota in 2002, with her husband Jay of 20 years. They have 3 children; their oldest child, Blake, lives in Benedict & works at Off Grid Armory, their middle child Caleb is in 3rd grade & loves math & soccer, & their youngest child Brielle is in 1st grade & loves reading & crafts.

She's been involved with CWLC since its beginning doing volunteer work at Shop at the Top & some janitorial work. In 2007 she started working as the receptionist & bookkeeper. Now that we have grown so much her position is the bookkeeper/ treasurer. "The best part of my job is I get to see God's hand moving in the lives that are touched here & working with a group of God loving people".

She loves to be outdoors with family & friends rollerblading, hiking, camping, mudding & adventure of any kind. Her strengths are achiever, belief, connectedness, responsibility, & restorative.
