

Shannon moved to Clearbrook from Montana 3 years ago when she married Brian Engebretson. She's had multiple jobs since college: teaching Spanish to first graders, managing an office at a camp and retreat center, working with a campus ministry and doing massage therapy.

In April of 2019, she started working at CWLC as a part-time receptionist and Shop At The Top assistant, now she gets to coach managers, work on policies and ask hard questions.

Shannon enjoys helping people and listening to their stories. Her heart is to encourage others to step closer to God and learn His heart for them, empowering them to live in the giftings He has uniquely given them.
